

Hi Steve,

I found my correspondence with Gary Marks, the fellow who sent me the Marks family photo.

He identifies the people in the photo as follows: father William in the bottom row center. His wife Anna had died in 1905 so this photo taken after that date. The others are all his children.

The email from Gary is dated 2004. So its been quite a long time since I corresponded with him. At some point, I sent him an email but it was never returned.

Per Gary Marks, John along with his parents and siblings emigrated from a village called Rudni which was then in Russia, not in the Ukraine. Gary thinks perhaps it was modern day Novo Rudni Barbaroka, located about 90 miles west of Zhitomir. This village had a population of German Baptists. The Marks family were German Baptists.

I used to correspond with Gary Marks abt 15 years ago. Haven't heard from him since but he sent me the copy of the photo of the Marks family.

Some of the sons of John Charles Marks started an auto dealership, Marks Motor Company, at 18th and Burnside in Portland.
